□ BLOOMIN' BBQ & BLUEGRASS

Sevierville

Celebrate the spring each May at this festival and see competitors put their barbecuing techniques to the test in Barbecue Cook-off, an official barbecue championship of Tennessee.

□ COOKEVILLE COOK-OFF AT FALL FUNFEST

Cookeville

Located in the hometown of National Barbecue Tour Director Michael "GrillMaster" McDearman, the competition gets fired up each September at the oldest KCBS Sanctioned barbecue competition east of the Mississippi.

□ JACK DANIEL'S WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP INVITATIONAL BARBECUE

Lynchburg

Barbecue teams, judges and 25,000 visitors from around the world flock to Lynchburg for the tasty competition. The Individual Grand Champion wins $10,000 and bragging rights.

□ MUSIC CITY BBQ FESTIVAL

Nashville

Walk away stuffed with 'cue at this large celebration of barbecue, music and community. The best barbecue teams in the world and hungry fans come together for two days of hog heaven.

□ SMOKE ON THE RIVER BBQ FESTIVAL

Clifton

Along the Tennessee River, guests smell the hickory and cherrywood-smoked meats as the cook-off pits barbecue bosses against each other to see who smokes the best.

□ WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP BARBECUE COOKING CONTEST, MEMPHIS IN MAY

Memphis

The smoke rises each year as visitors from all 50 states and even internationally come to see the best 'cuers face off in the annual World Championship Barbecue Cooking Contest as part of Memphis in May.
