□ EDLEY'S

12 South & East Nashville

Combining Nashville's iconic meat-and-three with their smoking tricks, Edley's serves up platters of succulent barbecue offerings. Make it a lunch destination to bite into the savory Tuck Special: smoked brisket topped with spicy pimento, an over-easy egg, pickles and doused in red and white sauce.

□ JACK'S BBQ

Nashville

Three locations are throughout Music City and the Jack's Bar-B-Que on Broadway, amidst the bright lights of the honky-tonks welcomes locals and visitors in for smoked chicken, ribs and brisket.

Nolensville

Each day begins at 5 a.m. when the low n' slow, whole-hog barbecue and sides are prepared from scratch. Two words: Redneck Taco. It's barbecue on a cornbread cake and it's nothing short of delicious.

□ PEG LEG PORKER

Nashville

The single-legged man behind the brand, pitmaster Carey Bringle brings legendary barbecue lineage to the table.

□ PUCKETT'S GROCERY & RESTAURANT

Chattanooga, Columbia, Franklin, Nashville & Leiper's Fork

Since the 1950s, Puckett's Gro. & Restaurant was once a tiny grocery in Leiper's Fork. Years later there are now numerous locations in Franklin, Nashville, Columbia and, the newest location, Chattanooga. Enjoy your slow cooked, Cherrywood-smoked barbecue with a side of music almost every night.

□ SMOKE ET AL

Nashville

Get your 'cue on the go with a visit to this barbecue food truck. From biscuits to brisket, you'll find a wealth of delectable options.

□ STROUD'S

Cookeville, Franklin & Lebanon

Dine in or drive-thru for ribs, sandwiches, loaded barbecue platters and even the Barbeque Burrito in Franklin, Lebanon and Cookeville.

□ WHITT'S BARBECUE

Hendersonville, Murfreesboro & Smyrna

Cooked 24 hours at a time with hickory smoke, you'll have some of the "Best of Nashville" since 1988 barbecue be it pork, turkey or ribs you're craving.
